Registration details

We are grateful for a generous, anonymous donation towards the cost of the Conference which enables the organisers to offer the entire programme for a very modest $20.00.

This includes a non-meat dinner on Saturday evening and a vegetarian lunch on Sunday.

The organisers will endeavour to provide for special dietary requirements, but it is essential that this be indicated in advance on the form below.

If you do not require dinner on Saturday and/or lunch on Sunday, please check the appropriate box(es) on the form below. This will help with catering. (Note: the $20 registration fee remains the same with or without meals.)

The organisers cannot arrange travel or accommodation. But if you are an Aucklander who could provide a billet, or if you are a visitor requiring a billet, please check the appropriate box on the form below.

The organisers will put visitors and billet providers in touch with each other; further arrangements are the responsibility of the parties concerned.

Very important note: the size of the venue limits attendance to 80. So to ensure a place, the organisers strongly recommend that CCJ members, subscribers to Massah, their colleagues, family and friends complete the registration form below and return it immediately, along with a cheque, before the event is advertised more widely.

If you require any further information please email either Wendy Ross clivross@xtra.co.nz or Tony Stroobant tonystroobant@orcon.net.nz
