

The Wellington Council of Christians and Jews

Public Sacred Text Study

The Binding of Isaac / Ishmael: Jewish, Christian and Muslim Perspectives

Wednesday 20 October 2010 at 7.30pm
Myers Hall, Wellington Jewish Community Centre
80 Webb St, Wellington
Entry by koha, all are welcome

Speakers:

Rabbi David Alima    Rabbi, Wellington Hebrew Congregation (Orthodox)

Rev Jenny Chalmers    Anglican Priest, St Marks Carterton; WCCJ Co-Chair

Sheikh Mohammed    Imam, Wellington Islamic Centre Amir

The binding of Isaac (in the Jewish and Christian traditions) or Ishmael (in the Islamic tradition) is a turning point in each of our religions, with fascinating similarities and differences in interpretation between the three Abrahamic faiths. Come find out more about the ongoing impact of this pivotal event over 3,000 years ago.

The three talks will be followed by an panel discussion.

For more information, contact Dave Moskovitz, dave@sinai.org.nz, 027 220 2202